Council was presented with details on the Run for Pie 5K to be held on Saturday September 21st and the timeline for Business 30 overlay project. Project is to begin on September 3rd with a tentative completion date of October 10th.

The council received the following reports from city departments:
City Engineer Dave Schechinger – working on punch list items from the water main project.

Public Works Director Travis Bagby – pushing the next phase of the water main to the spring due to Highway 30 and school projects, splash pad will be closing Sunday night for the year, millings to be repurposed, and a pump has failed at Grant Ave lift station.

Parks & Recreation Director Drayton Kamberling – softball concessions was very successful, back to school night was a huge success, movie night didn't happen due to the weather, but we have a year to use the movie credit, park is busy with sports starting up, mowing, and Halloweentown preparations. Thank you to the Nevitt family for the generous donation to the parks department.

Police Chief Doug Shannon – thank you to the Sauerkraut Day committee for their organization, there were no issues that weekend. Reminder to watch for kids with school starting back.

Ambulance Director Jacob Lindauer – finished the festivals with 18 calls that weekend, none of which were Sauerkraut Days related. Now focusing on football season and fundraising. 564 calls to date.

City Administrator Brandon Siggins – bathtub races profited $1,900, pancake breakfast will be Monday September 2nd and Brothers will be doing a roundup fundraiser. Planning and zoning meeting, office interviews, training next month, Meyers Farmstead work, and pre-con meeting for Highway 30. Thank you, Sauerkraut staff, with record number of attendees and city staff for helping when needed at the event.

Mayor and council thanked the Sauerkraut committee, Nevitt family, city staff and law enforcement personnel. The town has been busy, and it takes many hands to keep things moving. The library will be having a round up at Brothers in the coming months as well and currently has over 185 kids signed up for the Dolly Parton library program.
